EXHIBITOR TERMS AND CONDITIONS

All those exhibiting at The Berkeley Group Pony Club Championships are expected to comply with the following terms and conditions.

1. Applications

Application forms for the The Berkeley Group Pony Club Championships 2017 must be completed with remittance and returned to Musketeer Event Management by the closing date of 7th July 2017. Exhibitors are required to submit the health and safety documentation with their application, failure to do so may result in the application being rendered ineligible.

Please make cheques payable to – The Pony Club and send all applications to – Musketeer Event Management, 2 Gate Cottage, Field House, Brancaster, King's Lynn, Norfolk, PE31 8AG.

Applications will not be accepted or space held without full documentation and payment.

The organisers reserve the right to exclude, at their discretion, any person or company from trading/exhibiting at the event, or close a stand which fails to comply with either these terms and conditions or health and safety standards.

2. Abandonment & Cancellation

In the event of abandonment, exhibitors may be entitled to a refund or partial refund depending on the duration which the event has been open to the public. In the event of abandonment any such refund shall only be made after consultation with the event insurers.

There can however be no refund in respect of any tentage/shedding, optional extras such as flooring or electricity connections, which are already on site or have been erected or installed on behalf of the exhibitors. Exhibitors are recommended to insure for losses incurred by cancellation or abandonment.

If an exhibitor for whatever reason does not attend the event or cancels their booking after the closing date for applications, all fees paid will be forfeited. The organisers reserve the right to re-let the space.

3. Opening of Exhibitor Stands

No exhibitor or their associated contractors will be admitted onto the event site before 9.00am on Wednesday 16th August, unless prior permission has been obtained from the organisers.

The Site Manager will be available to site stands between 9.00am and 6.00pm on Wednesday 16th and Thursday 17th. All exhibits must be open for business between 9.00am and 6.00pm on Friday 18th – Tuesday 22nd August, or on days attending. During which time stands are to be occupied by at least one responsible adult.

All goods and exhibits must be removed from the event site by Wednesday 23rd unless prior permission has been obtained from the organisers.

4. Allotment of Space

Application for space shall be dealt with by the organisers at their discretion and the organisers shall determine the position allocated to exhibitors.

No exhibitor may sublet the whole or any portion of any space allotted to them or more to any other site other than that allocated to them, without prior permission of the organiser.

Exhibitors are responsible for ensuring that they book the correct size for their exhibit. This should include all tow bars, guy ropes and pegs. Exhibitors whose stands or associate vehicles go beyond the perimeter of their allocated space will be charged an additional £50.00 plus VAT per square meter.

Those exhibitors whose stands are based on articulated prime-movers and trailers will have difficulty getting into the space provided if neighbouring sites are already occupied. Exhibitors using articulated prime-movers and trailer should indicate this on their application form, or inform Musketeer Event Management as soon as possible so that, if necessary, special arrangements may be made.

5. Passes, Parking of Vehicles, Access and Deliveries

Access for all exhibitors, staff, subcontractors and deliveries is via the main event entrance, please follow the event signage.

No access to the site during peak times (trading hours); vehicles wishing to access during this time will be expected to use the public car park.

No unauthorised vehicle movement onsite once the event is open to the public.

All accepted exhibitor applications will receive one vehicle pass, more passes can be issued upon request. These passes must be clearly displayed at all times, failing to do so will result in the vehicle having to park in the public car park and pay the normal admission charges. No refunds will be issued for admission tickets purchased in such circumstances. The organisers have no facilities for the storage of goods on site and accept no responsibility for any losses/damage between exhibitor and their suppliers before, during and after the event.

6. Selling

Exhibitors may only sell/offer for sale/advertise any article from within the confines of their stand. Nor shall the exhibitor distribute any leaflets/poster outside the confines of their stand. The organisers reserve the right to take whatever steps deemed necessary if the above instruction is disregarded.

The organisers also reserve the right to stop activity which may cause annoyance to other exhibitors, visitors or competitors.

Charities or other institutions wishing to raise funds at the event must obtain permission from the organisers. Raffles and collections may only take place within the confines of the exhibitors own stand.

7. Electricity

Provision of electricity is restricted to certain areas of the event site. All requests for power must be booked and paid for at the time of application. Late requests for electricity may incur a late booking fee.

Any wiring or electrical component additions or alterations which are required as a result of the exhibitor's equipment will be made at the discretion of the organisers and electrical contractor and will be chargeable in full to the exhibitor. The organisers reserve the right to dis-connect any exhibitor from the electrical supply if, in the opinion of the electrical contractor, the exhibitors equipment is faulty.

Electricity will be supplied for the duration of the event only, although the organisers will endeavour to have the supply operational on Thursday 17th August.

Should the exhibitor be using their own generator, it must be super silenced, fenced, correctly earthed and fuel stored in an appropriate manner.

8. Fire

All traders must provide suitable and sufficient firefighting equipment as per their risk assessment.

All materials used in the construction of trade-stands should be constructed of non-flammable materials or be effectively fire proofed. Exhibitors should not keep on their stand or the surrounding area any flammable, explosive or dangerous substances.

All avenues, aisles and fire exits must be kept clear of exhibits.

Exhibitors should not park any vehicle so close to the back of the trade stand that it would cause an obstruction in the event of emergency evacuation of the trade stand. Exhibitors must adhere to all fire and safety regulations.

9. Responsibility & Conditions of Exhibitors

Health & Safety - All exhibitors are expected to comply with the events health & safety policy. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to ensure that their stand is soundly erected and that the stand and exhibits are safe at all times.

Banners and Boards - Under no circumstances are banners or boards to be erected in any trade-stand avenue, arena, cross country course, car-park, access road or public road in and around the event site. Board space may be booked with the organiser and the appropriate fee paid. Any banner erected without permission will be removed or the appropriate fee charged.

Dogs - All dogs must be kept on a lead and under control at all times whilst on the event site. Dog owners are reminded that they are responsible for cleaning up after their dog. The owner of any dog found to be causing a nuisance may be asked to leave the event site and may have any future application for trade stand space refused.

Tidiness - Trade stand holders must ensure tidiness on their stand, the area in front of their stand and the area behind their stand. Rubbish bins and skips will be located around the site and rubbish should be placed accordingly. A fee of £50 plus VAT will also be charged in the event of damage to the site or waste/rubbish left.

10. Disclaimer of Liability

Save for death or personal injury caused by the negligence of the organisers or anyone for whom in law they are responsible, neither the Pony Club Championships, nor any agent, employee or representative of these bodies accepts any liability for any accident, loss, damage, injury or illness to horses, owners, riders, spectators, land, cars, their contents and accessories or any other person or property whatsoever, whether caused by their negligence, breach of contract or in any other way whatsoever. Further, the organisers reserve the right to refuse admission to The Berkeley Group Pony Club Championships to any person or to withdraw permission at any times and shall not be required to give any reasons for such action.
