

NEWS IN BRIEF

Four-star horse on the market

EMILY LLEWELLYN'S four-star ride Greenlawn Sky High, currently owned by her mother Cindy and Nicolette Gidley Wright, is on the market. The 13-year-old by Aldatus Z was 18th at Burghley last year. "He still has so much to give someone, and is competitive enough for a top rider or brave and experienced enough for an amateur or younger person as a schoolmaster," Emily said.

Charity named for Houghton

WALKING With The Wounded, a Norfolk-based charity that helps wounded ex-servicemen find and train for new careers outside the military, will be the official charity at the 10th anniversary running of Houghton Horse Trials this year (26-29 May).

Emily Llewellyn's four-star horse Greenlawn Sky High is for sale

Volunteers in the spotlight

TIRELESS British Eventing (BE) volunteers have been honoured, with the following people given the BE