Welcome to the Barefoot Retreats Burnham Market International Horse Trials.

We're thrilled to be back as the Title Sponsor of Burnham Market International Horse Trials for 2024!

At Barefoot Retreats we offer a carefully curated collection of luxury self-catering properties, from the remarkable to the quintessential. Nestled along the North Norfolk coastal path from Snettisham to Wells-Next-The-Sea we offer a laidback luxury experience, ensuring our guests feel at home from the moment they arrive. Guests will receive the keys to some of the most beautiful and individually owned homes in the area, as well as having access to our exclusive concierge service. From personal chefs to paddleboard experiences, e-bike hire to seal trips to visiting beauty therapists and babysitters, Barefoot has created a directory of businesses that will make a stay full of memories and adventure.

With a portfolio of 130 properties guests can choose from cosy cottages by the beach, dog friendly boltholes, big and beautiful barn conversions, friends and family hideaways with hot tubs and games rooms to a boutique hotel stay at The Railway in Burnham Market. The Railway Hotel offers 8 uniquely designed bedrooms, fully stocked honesty bar, secluded garden and a sunken hot-tub.

We are proud to support a local event that is such a fantastic day out for all the family. Alec and his team do a superb job organising it all and there's always such a variety of stands. It's also a chance for us to watch some of the best competitors in the sport at the top of their game so early into the Eventing season and on an Olympic year, not really a bad day in the office!

We'll be on site for the three days of competition, along with our Gin Bar, The Juniper Box. Please pop and see us if you're looking to holiday in the area, have a holiday home you'd like to maximise the potential from, or just want to talk about Norfolk and the horse trials, all with a gin in hand – we'd love to see you.

We hope you have a fantastic time!

CHAIRMAN'S WELCOME

25 years

The Organising committee and I would like to welcome all competitors, owners, helpers, spectators, volunteers and sponsors to our 25th anniversary celebrations at Sussex Farm. The event has developed beyond recognition since its inception in 1999 thanks, in large part, to the vision of my son-in-law Alec Lochore.

None of this would be possible without our host of generous sponsors and army of volunteers who give up their time so willingly.

We are delighted to welcome back Barefoot Retreats as our title sponsor. Its support enables the continued success and development of this fantastic horse trials, which continues to attract many of the world's leading riders with both their top horses and up-and-coming youngsters. We appreciate the effort so many make to come to Norfolk to compete at our event.

For newcomers to Burnham Market I recommend taking a walk up the hill to the viewing mound where you can see much of the course and, on a clear day, glimpse the sea. Do also take a look at the various trade stands in the main showground. I hope you all enjoy your day.

The advertisement banner features a yellow top section with the Bedmax logo in green and black, flanked by two royal warrants from the Queen. Below this is a dark green section with the tagline 'MAKING BEDDING BETTER' in white. The central image shows a woman in riding attire leading a brown horse and a white horse. To the right, three bags of Bedmax bedding (Large Pine Shavings, Light Pine Shavings, and Straw Pellet Bedding) are displayed next to a pile of bedding. The text 'Helping you keep your horses healthy in their stables' is positioned above the bedding. At the bottom, there is a circular logo for NOPS Beta Bedding, contact information for Bedmax, and a QR code.

25 YEARS AND COUNTING

Blythe Tait New Zealand

It was 1999 when Alec Lochore's career took a significant progression. Whilst he'd been involved with eventing at his family home, Burgie, since he left school – admitting, "I pushed them in to running the first two-day event there so I could design and build the courses, giving myself a summer job!", it was the inaugural Burnham Market Horse Trials that was to set his course.

The late Colonel Guy Wathen was the official organiser of what is now Norfolk's premier horse trials, with Alec and his wife Emily Guy's 'side kicks'.

Twenty-five years ago there was just one day of competition, at Pre Novice (now BE100) and Novice level. Alec remembers, "the Secretary's tent was in Sussex Barn, as were the tradestands – bar Tiggas which set up just outside. The lorries parked in what is now the tradestand field."

The following year the team ran two events and introduced Intermediate classes, then in 2001 they were awarded what would now be a CCI3*S, then a CIC, for the April fixture. Unfortunately Foot & Mouth put paid to that, but Alec is quick to credit Guy's adaptability. "When it was possible to run again, the following month, we ran two weeks back-to-back.

“Many places wouldn’t run, and we had to put in a lot of infrastructure; wheel washers, horse washers... the horses had to walk through disinfectant on the way to the stables so we had to dig holes and pits, line them, semi-fill with stones, things everyone has long since forgotten about.”

Burnham Market hosted its first Advanced in 2002. A year previously there had been a BE approved but unaffiliated class consisting of five horses who were heading to Kentucky, allowed because it was an area with no significant Foot & Mouth outbreak. Alec remembers Rodney Powell and he thinks Ian Stark competing in the class. “We’ve done some crazy things over the years,” he laughs. “Another year of terrible rain we ran an additional advanced at very short notice, possibly six days, and had something like 160 entries because everything else had been cancelled.”

A big challenge for Alec is the lack of space; just 87 acres. “If we have a big gate in the spring, and a lot of entries – both of which I am extremely grateful for – we can run out. It might be Norfolk, but finding enough flat ground to use is hard. My father-in-law, Jeremy Thompson, who owned the site when we started out, was visionary when he cut out the main arena which is fit for any event in the world.”

One of Alec’s stand out highlights is undoubtedly Oliver Townend winning the headline class 15 times, describing it as, “ridiculous because the level of competition is so high. One year we were running an Advanced and I heard that a fourth horse had jumped clear inside the time. I thought I’d got it wrong. Then I saw that the first three were horses like Classic Moet, Skyboy and Ballagmor Class, all five-star winners. Maybe not quite so wrong, just the world’s best horses and riders!

Trade Stands 1999

25 YEARS AND COUNTING

Gary Parsonage (1999)

"I am genuinely grateful that riders and owners bring these incredible horses to Burnham Market. It's pretty cool that you can go and watch that level of horse compete with just a piece of string between you and it. Then three weeks later they go and win Badminton, or Kentucky, or later in the season an Olympic gold medal or World Championship."

Other high points over the years have included some wonderful sponsor support from Andre Serruys through various companies such as Easco and now Emma Tagg at Barefoot Retreats, as well as hosting a World Cup for several years. When Covid-19 hit in 2020 Musketeer Event Management was better placed than many to cope. "After Foot & Mouth in 2001, this was slightly deja-vu for us," says Alec. "We started the season at Barbury and ran six events in 11 weeks around the country, and Burnham Market hosted the cancelled Blenheim Palace Horse Trials in September, all with significant bio-security measures in place."

The Hunters Hollow Leaf Pit

Prize Giving - William Fox Pitt and Catherine Joice

Astonishingly, with 109 days of scheduled competition taking place over the years across Burnham Market's two fixtures, only two days have been cancelled - one of which was last year, a testament to a very weather-resilient, as well as very well respected, venue.

"It means a lot to be a key top level prep-run. Over the years, when Leslie Law won the Athens Olympics in 2004, when Zara Tindall won the World Championship in 2006, Oliver Townend, Tom McEwen and Laura Collett won team gold at Tokyo 2020, Ros Canter the 2018 World Championship and 2023 European Championship... all these riders come/ came here. It gives me a lot of satisfaction and pleasure - they are the top of the sport, competing here in Norfolk."

APPLAUDING THE PERENNIALS

We all know that volunteers are crucial to the smooth running of eventing, and there are some who have gone above and beyond at Burnham Market. Colonel Guy Wathen, the first organiser, was a key person when it came to recruiting this loyal team.

Judy Hancock knew Guy from her Pony Club days. Her family had been involved in running horse trials in the 1980s so Guy asked her to join the inaugural committee.

"Originally I was in charge of the show-jumping but following the Foot & Mouth epidemic, Phillida Hurn and Ros Vincent, who ran the dressage, decided to call it a day. Guy moved me there with Juliet Case taking on the jumping. It was very exciting to have a new event in Norfolk because there were precious few in East Anglia.

"I'd been Chief Dressage Steward for many years when in 2018 Angela Tucker, one of the judges, lost her husband Mike the Wednesday before the event so I stepped in to judge the three-star. Sadly it was one of only two occasions when we had to abandon after dressage due to rain."

Judy was also president of the Ground Jury when Burnham Market ran a one-off CCI4*L in covid year, replacing the cancelled Blenheim so that competitors could gain qualifications for the following year.

"It has become a really important event in the calendar, and having Alec's expertise and experience has proved invaluable. These days we get more entries in the CCI4*S than the BE100!"

Alice Vaughan-Jones

Everyone who has competed at Burnham Market over the years will have come across Alice Vaughan-Jones. She has manned the Secretary's Tent since 1999. "That first year I worked out of a horsebox by the barn," she remembers.

Like Judy, she was brought in by Guy due to her experience running local shows and Pony Club events. "I knew a bit about most things," Alice laughs. "I also did the stabling in the early years, when it was off site, and trade stands, although I wriggled out of that as quickly as I could! In the early days we pretty much made up what we were doing as we went along, it has got so much more professional now.

"I love that the riders come back year after year, it's the only time I see most of them. I've known some since they first started out. Luckily for me, I have less jobs now; we don't hand out numbers, most of the paperwork has gone, and we don't handle any money. Health and Safety has changed a lot of things – it didn't really exist in 1999. Back then there were barely enough people to go round, but we were all good mates and everyone pulled together and mucked in."

One of the absolutely integral cogs in the wheel of the event is Tina Hayward who has worked for the Horse Trials every year bar 2001. It was Tina who suggested bringing Guy in as the original event organiser.

Tina Hayward

“Being a cautious person I was very dubious whether we could make a go of an event at Burnham Market, so far from anywhere – but I was proved wrong! I also worried that we were expanding too quickly, but again I was proved wrong!

“From day one I have been Chief Cross Country Steward, so responsible for getting all the cross-country judges, starters, timekeepers, collecting ring stewards and score processors in Control; organising them all before and on the day.

“Obviously the event has got bigger and bigger and now draws all the top names who are warming up for Badminton which is amazing. This has brought big crowds especially when we run over Easter, however, crowds are my biggest nightmare, especially dogs and pushchairs but we haven’t killed anyone yet!”

Tina and Alice share a most memorable moment from the last 25 years; “Guy Wathen backing his car into a water tank, causing a huge fountain of water, followed by him making a radio call asking for someone to come and look at a water tank which had sprung a leak for no apparent reason!”

Kate French, Sarah Jewson, Poppet Boone, cross country starters

Two of Tina’s regular team are friends Sarah Jewson and Kate French. They have run the cross-country collecting ring since 1999. Guy remains a binding agent between all of these long-serving volunteers.

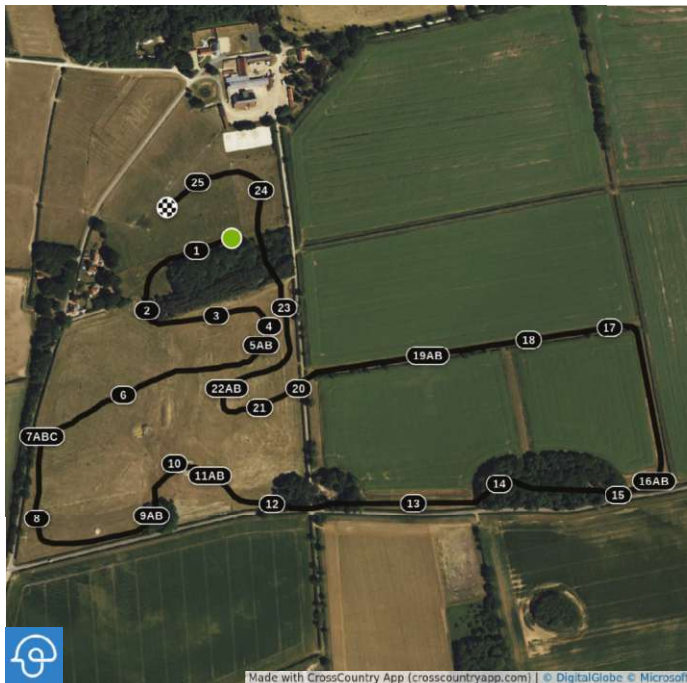

“Kate and I agreed to do the cross-country collecting ring,” Sarah remembers. “The event grew quickly and everybody came – top riders and horses, even royalty. Tina is a great friend whose job gets ever more difficult as we all get older, but for us, it’s good to put something back into the sport. Despite the very long days, we are determined to keep going while we can – or until we get the sack!”

Kate was never not going to be roped in, she was Guy’s sister-in-law. “If I’m asked to do a job and I can, I say yes. It’s also a case of giving back, with both Piggy and Nini eventing,” Kate explains. “Being local it was great to have a new event on my doorstep. Norfolk is far too far away from most things and Burnham Market is the perfect place to have a horse trial.

“The only downside is that when you are there you have to be there full time so I never get a chance to watch my kids – though I see them start and, hopefully, finish. It can be cold, wet, and snowy, but we always do it. I keep going because of Tina, we are her ‘merry men’. She really is an unsung hero.”
